

Austin, Texas, has Great Hotels within Miles of the Airport!

By William Hauselberg

There are numerous choices for Austin, TX, airport lodging. What makes it more enticing is that these are top-rated hotels, so regardless of where you stay you are guaranteed a great experience.

Most of the hotels are high-end with luxurious accommodations. So whether you are traveling for business or pleasure and want the convenience of being close to the airport as well as being in downtown Austin, then any choice you make will not be a disappointment.

Many Attractions Within Walking Distance

Within walking distance or a short drive you will be exposed to the diverse culture of this area. This is a city that is historical in nature while immersed in fun and exciting events. If you're a fan of live music, then a stroll down Sixth Street is essential. How about those Longhorns? The University of Texas is just around the corner. Other attractions of interest are: art galleries, museums, The State Capitol, as well as the Austin Convention Center.

For those who love the outdoors and scenic beauty be sure to check out Mt. Bonnell. Here you will find spectacular views of Lake Austin as well as downtown Austin. Mt. Bonnell is composed of naturally formed limestone that stands approximately seven hundred feet above sea level. Here you will see a unique array of cacti and wildflowers. Additionally, for you nature lovers, Zilker Park is another must see. There are hiking trails, canoeing, and the exquisitely beautiful Taniguchi Oriental Gardens. The best part is that both Mt. Bonnell and Zilker Park are within ten miles of the airport and downtown Austin!

Great Amenities Available in Austin Texas Hotels

It will be hard to choose where to stay since all the hotels are close to the airport with competitive features but each with their own distinctive style and feel. You might want to look for Austin, TX, hotels with a restaurant if you'd like to be able to enjoy a world class meal in the same location as your suite. Regardless of where you stay, you will undoubtedly receive wonderful hospitality that Texas is known for.

Each hotel is equipped with internet access; some are wireless (be sure to check with a specific hotel if wireless access is a necessity for you). You can be assured that each hotel offers unique and wonderful food service as well. For other amenities that are important and specific to your needs, be sure to check out each hotel for what you desire.

So if Austin Texas is your destination, be sure to check out the hotels surrounding the airport. They are plentiful and will undoubtedly add pleasure to your stay.

The author of this article offers Austin, TX, airport lodging. The author knows where to find the best Austin, TX, hotels with a restaurant.

Hotel Renovation