

Luxurious Panama City Hotels

By Dave Southern

With more than twenty-seven miles of bleached white sands along Gulf of Mexico's crystal green waters, Panama City Beach for sure is the ultimate holiday retreat. Sunning, swimming, jet skiing, parasailing, fishing, sailing, boating, well the list is endless. Panama City Beach presents beach pursuits for just about everyone.

Ranked the top beach in 1995 and occupying the number 4 slot in America, Panama City Beach truly is a mainland ecstasy.

The majority of the tourist hotels are in the gorgeous Panama City Beach, just a couple of miles to the city's west. There is an extensive range of Panama City accommodations in various price brackets. They cover a number of condominium hotels having fully equipped kitchens. The best deals are available in the winter season from September-February. The ideal time to visit Panama City Beach for sure is in September-October, since the weather is really beautiful and the prices quite reasonable.
