

Considering a Hotel Makeover?

Simple hotel renovations can make dramatic changes. Studies show that hotel guests want to feel elegant when they are visiting your hotel. Polishing your marble lobby, correctly without crystallizing it, will enhance the magnificence of your hotel entrance.

You want your hotel guests to feel special when they walk through the front doors. If your front desk has a marble or granite counter, you'll want to be sure that scratches and stains are removed. Rose Restoration, the premier marble and stone renovation experts can assist in transforming your lobby, whether you are redoing the entire hotel, or just looking to spruce up the lobby.

For years, Rose Restoration International, Inc. has been the sought-after company for marble, granite, stone and terrazzo restoration. They've performed thousands of hotel renovations, both for general contractor's and directly for hotels. Most hotels that use Rose Restoration for their renovation request their continued expertise for ongoing stone care maintenance.

If you are planning a rooms renovation, Rose Restoration can restore the marble or granite countertops, shower walls, and floors in your guest bathrooms. They can restore between 10 and 50 rooms per day depending on your occupancy. All rooms will be returned to service the same day for sale by 7pm that evening. Some rooms will be turned over at 2pm, for immediate occupancy.

Since 1978, Rose Restoration has offered award winning restoration, renovation and maintenance services to the hotel industry. Our attention to details and commitment to safety separates us from many. Our dedicated management team has allowed Rose Restoration to grow to become a true leader and innovator in our industry. We pride ourselves on offering the latest technology while not compromising the integrity of the stone. Rose Restoration offers services nationwide, while being owned and operated by Dasch family, they are not a franchise.

Confident that they offer the best service, finest results and fairest price, Rose Restoration is your best bet for the stone restoration component of your hotel renovation. Contact Rose Restoration today.

About the Author: Leslie Dasch is the VP of Marketing for Rose Restoration . For 30 years, Rose Restoration has performed fine Marble and Stone Restoration for some of the nations finest hotel renovations, both modern and historical. Rose Restoration is proud to have polished marble in homes of 3 presidents, hundreds of Senators and Congressmen, ambassadors and our most important clients – people just like you. Your decision to choose Rose Restoration can be made with confidence. Celebrating 30 Years of Attention to Detail.